Site of a clay slide which covered newly-graded thruway roadbed near Tillson (above) is expected to be inspected by top Thruway Authority officials when they arrive Thursday on a scheduled tour. Conrad Lang, chief engineer, and Holden Evans, Jr., manager of the thruway authority, had planned even before the slide occurred on Sunday to inspect area construction work this week Thursday, according to J. S. Bixby, district engineer for the New York State Department of Public Works. Decisions as to what to do with the bulk of the clay and what steps will be taken to eliminate further difficulties probably will be held up until after the inspection. Meanwhile, however, work will start on cutting a pathway through the slide to allow equipment to move. (Freeman photo)

Dulles Feels Pact Could Bring Peace

Bulletins

Belgrade, July 13 (AP)—The Yugoslav press hinted today that negotiations to settle the tangled Trieste dispute have run into a last-minute stumbling block.

Newspapers and the country's two news services implied the talks hit a snag over the question of local autonomy within the Italian republic for the port city of Trieste. The stories were obviously government-inspired.

Commission Proposed

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Hearings of both the AFL and CIO today proposed that President Eisenhower name a commission to study Communist infiltration of labor unions and recommend controls to the next session of Congress.

AFL President George Meany and CIO President Walter Reuther sent their suggestions to the chairmen of the Judiciary Committee of Congress, which have been studying proposals of Atty. Gen. Brownell and others. Meany said the commission also could look into different kinds of organizations.

Personal Incomes

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The Commerce Department said today the personal income of Americans rose in May to an annual rate of $285,200,000,000. This was a gain of 800 million dollars from April.

However, the seasonally adjusted annual rate in May was still approximately a billion dollars under the rate in May a year ago, and also about a billion dollars under the rate in May 1953. For the first month since last July, the Commerce Department reported, factory payrolls rose slightly in May. Agricultural income also increased due to somewhat higher farm prices and a larger volume of crop marketings.

Illegality Charged

New Brunswick, N. J., July 13 (AP)—A young ex-soldier, who kept going back to the army, was in jail here today charged with wearing a uniform illegally.

The ex-GI, identified as Richard Brown, 18, of Norwich, Conn., was picked up by the FBI after his forcible ejection from Camp Kilmer on July 9. He was taken into custody when he kept returning to the camp.

Authorities at Kilmer said Brown lived at the post from May 2 until July 8 when the provost marshal issued an order for his ejection. He was forcibly removed the next day.

Agrees to Removal

Chicago, July 13 (AP)—Mrs. Marion Thorne, wealthy Chicago socialite, has agreed that her son's body should be removed to medical scientist to fix the cause of his mysterious death.

"I want to get at the truth," her attorney, Bartlett Marmon, quoted her as saying. Coroner Walter E. McCarron said he will appear before Chief Justice Charles S. Dougherty in Criminal Court today to get legal authorization to exhume the body.

Will Keep Reform

Guatemala, July 13 (AP)—Col. Castillo Armas, president of Guatemala's new military junta, says he will keep in effect the land reform law under which the former left-wing government split many large estates among peasants.

The controversial measure, adopted by the ousted regime of ex-President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, resulted in confiscation of 234,000 acres of land belonging to the U. S.-owned United Fruit Co. (Continued on Page 19, Col. 4)

AEC Would Develop Electricity 'Furnace'

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) has set in motion a project aimed at developing a new kind of "atomic furnace" for generation of cheap electric power.

The AEC announced yesterday the approval of a 10 million dollar project in which the commission and North American Aviation Inc. of Los Angeles will work together on development of the nation's first sodium-graphite reactor—an atomic furnace that will use slightly enriched uranium or a combination of thorium and U-233 as fuel.

The commission called the project "a new step toward the development of economic nuclear power." The experimental furnace is due to be operating by mid-1957.

Reds Shell French Headquarters in Area Near Hanoi

Civilians Quit Son Tay as Pressure Increases

—11 Rebels Killed, 17 Captured

Hanoi, Indochina, July 13 (AP)—Vietminh mortars shelled French army headquarters at Son Tay, 25 miles northwest of Hanoi, last night and sniper warfare rang through the streets of the defense outpost town of 6,000. A French army spokesman said civilians were moving out of Son Tay as rebel pressure builds up in that sector and across the northern Red River delta defense area.

Forty-one rebels were reported killed and 17 captured in various actions during the night. There was no announcement of French losses.

Between Son Tay and Hanoi Vietminh guerrillas attacked a French highway guard patrol but were driven off by a tank squadron that rumbled out of Son Tay to the rescue. Twenty Vietminh were killed and seven captured in the roadside fight.

One rebel sniper was killed on a Son Tay street corner but others apparently escaped.

Other Fights Reported

Other fights were reported just north of Hung Yen, 25 miles southeast of Hanoi, and through the Seik Kyacodes-Lue, Nam-Phu Lang Thuong triangle, 35 miles northeast of Hanoi.

North of Hung Yen, rebel guerrilla and French-Vietnamese patrols clashed in small night battles for possession of the supply road from Hanoi.

In each fight, the French spokesman said, the Vietminh were driven off before their demolition units could cut the road. Twenty rebels were killed and 40 captured in the area.

French Bomb Bases

In the air yesterday, French fighters and bombers plastered Vietminh bases north of Hung Yen with more than 120 tons of high explosives. Other planes bombed a string of rebel bases north of the Hanoi-Haiphong supply lifeline. Three night-flying B26 bombers harassed the Red China supply route just south of Langson and a scant dozen miles from the Chinese border.

At Haiphong, 100 Vietminh prisoners of war were loaded aboard French boats for transportation 75 miles south to be exchanged at Sam Son tomorrow for 100 rebel-held prisoners.

A similar POW exchange will be staged at Vietri, 40 miles northwest of Hanoi, on Thursday.

Ithaca, July 13 (AP)—Mohawk Airlines continued its regular flight service today as the result of an agreement late last night that ended the threat of a strike by its 73 pilots.

Senate Reverses 'Self on Aid to France, Italy'

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, yielding to State Department appeals, reversed itself late yesterday and struck out of its $3,100,000,000 foreign aid bill a proposed notice to France and Italy to join a proposed European army or forego U. S. help after Dec. 31.

With two top Republican leaders voting against the move, the committee substituted less stringent language already approved by the House in a move to prod the two nations to approve the projected European Defense Community.

Now the bill goes to the Armed Services Committee, perhaps for further changes. That group considers it because much of the overseas program is arms aid.

On Losing Side

Voting on the losing side in the Foreign Relations Committee for the virtual ultimatum to France and Italy were Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, and Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

The votes of five Democrats and three other Republicans gave the administration the 8-5 margin which deleted from the bill wording which would have ordered a shutoff of all foreign aid, military and non-military, to France and Italy on Dec. 31 if they had not joined EDC or an acceptable substitute. The provision had been tentatively approved on Saturday.

Douglas Says Minimum of 137 Wings Should Be Ready by '57

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The air force says now it needs $7,600,000,000 to build a global system of air bases for its strategic bombers—a cut of nearly two billion dollars from earlier estimates.

James H. Douglas, undersecretary of the air force said in testimony made public today that minimum operational requirements for a 137-wing air force should be completed by the end of 1957. A wing ranges from 30 to 75 planes.

McCarthy Calls Meeting To Probe Defense Plants

Washington, July 13 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) today called for a Senate Investigations Subcommittee meeting Thursday which could produce action on demands for the firing of some staff employees.

McCarthy, the chairman, told newsmen he was calling the meeting specifically as a step toward his long-deferred investigation of alleged Communist infiltration on defense plants.

He said he will invite the subcommittee's members, however, to let him know in advance if they want to take up other matters. Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) promptly announced he will move to take up staff problems.

Jackson said, however, it would be premature to say now what steps he and the other subcommittee Democrats may propose. All three have joined in saying there should be a staff housecleaning.

British-French Make Bid to Get Secretary to Return to Geneva for Conferences

Paris, July 13 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived here today and said he considers that a collective defense organization for southeast Asia could help France get "just and honorable peace terms" in Indochina.

Dulles flew into Paris aboard a U. S. Military Air Transport Constellation for a top-level British-French attempt to convince him an "honorable" peace can still be won in Indochina—and that his presence in Geneva would help win it.

He is scheduled to open talks with French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden at 6 p. m. (12 noon EST). Eden and Mendes-France left Geneva earlier today to be on hand for the conference.

Recalls April Trip

In a statement, Dulles recalled he had come to Paris last April 13, before the Geneva Conference started, to talk about forming a southeast Asian defense pact.

At that time, he said, he felt such an organization would help France. "I still feel the same way," he added.

He went on to explain: "The United States is not itself a belligerent and therefore not a proper party to many aspects of the problem which are the principal concern of the Geneva Conference. However, we do have a great and continuing interest in collective action by France, Great Britain, United States and other free countries to promote the peace and freedom of the area."

Among Subjects

"This, as well as pressing European problems, will, I hope, be among the subjects of our conversations here, which are bound to re-emphasize to the Communists the futility of their efforts to divide us."

The reference to European problems indicated Dulles expects to discuss plans for the six-nation European army which France has delayed placing before its parliament for ratification.

Dulles' flight here was in answer to an urgent appeal from Mendes-France. On leaving Washington last night, the American secretary emphasized that Paris was his present destination.

and tonight, Mendes-France and Eden will outline the prospects for an Indochina peace settlement in an attempt to allay American fears that France is getting ready to surrender to the Reds at Geneva. Dulles' determination that the United States should not be saddled with responsibility for any such settlement resulted in his decision that neither he nor Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith would return to Geneva for the final round of negotiations.

Viewed as Strengthened Western diplomats at the Geneva conference viewed Dulles' trip to Paris as a strengthening for Mendes-France, who has only eight days left to make good on his promise to win an "honorable" Indochina peace from the Communists by July 20 or resign.

French and British diplomats were hopeful their bosses could convince the American secretary he or Smith should return to the conference table with them. A French spokesman in Geneva said Mendes-France would make a "lightning visit" to Paris, and would be back in Switzerland tomorrow or Thursday.

But Dulles in an airport statement in Washington served notice the United States might part company with her European allies over future policy on Indochina.

$7,000 Gasoline Theft Reported At GLF Terminal

New Windsor State Police Say 51,000 Gallons Missing; Barge Use Seen

Newburgh, July 13 (AP)—The manager of the GLF farm supply marine terminal reported to state police today that during the weekend someone stole more than $7,000 worth of fuel from terminal tanks.

State police at the New Windsor station said William Siegman, terminal manager, reported 51,000 gallons of various types of liquid fuel were taken.

Siegman said that during a routine inspection of the tanks, on the Hudson river bank, yesterday he noticed seals on some tanks had been loosened, and that chains running through the seals had been cut.

A check of the tank levels disclosed that 30,000 gallons of regular gasoline, 10,000 gallons of premium gasoline and 11,000 gallons of kerosene gone.

Police said Siegman speculated that someone floated a barge to the terminal during the weekend and loaded up.

Heat Hits Peak In Central Areas

8 Deaths Occur, Water Supplies Short; in Kansas It's 121

(By The Associated Press)

The biggest heat wave so far this summer baked central sections of the nation today with little real relief in sight.

At least eight deaths have been attributed to the heat. The mercury zoomed to an unofficial oven-like 121 degrees in Pittsburg, Kan., Monday and plus 100-degree readings were common from the Rockies eastward to the Great Lakes.

Local water shortages developed in some communities from the heat and lack of rainfall, but no widespread crop damage has developed yet.

In Kansas City, where the temperature reached 109, so many people turned on their air conditioners that power lines became overloaded. The Kansas City Power and Light Co. said power use hit an all-time high Monday evening.

Governors Split On Road Plans

Both Parties Agree on Need, but Some See Federal-State Challenge

Bolton Landing, July 13 (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania proposed and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California endorsed today a plan for a showdown conference of governors with President Eisenhower on a projected 50-billion-dollar highway program.

"We want the federal government to get out of the gasoline and fuel oil tax field once and for all and now is the time to do it before we embark on any large scale highway program such as the President has suggested," Fine said.

Division Is Reported

Bolton Landing, July 13 (AP)—Governors divided sharply today on how to carry out President Eisenhower's bold proposal for a 50-billion-dollar transcontinental highway program.

Almost without exception, Republican and Democratic governors agreed that the country needs a 10-year expansion of roads that would shape up as one of the country's greatest permanent, non-war construction programs.

$50,000 Accident Settlement Made

Attorney Michael Nardone of Highland yesterday confirmed an out of court settlement of $50,000 to Mrs. Edythe Ackhart of Clintondale, for injuries which she suffered in a car-truck crash last October 12 on the Clintondale-Ardonia road. Nardone represented Mrs. Ackhart in a suit instituted against the Modjeska Signs Studio of Kingston, whose truck was involved in the accident.

A court action in behalf of Mrs. Ackhart was scheduled to go before Supreme Court here at the fall trial term, Nardone said.

Mrs. Ackhart was a passenger in an automobile owned and operated by Mrs. Ethel Dingle when the car was in a collision with a truck operated by the Modjeska Signs studio. Daniel Becker of Newburgh represented the Modjeska studio.

Mrs. Ackhart was a patient at Vassar Hospital for about three weeks after the mishap. Her injuries included a broken knee.

Store Corporation Favored By Appellate Court Ruling

Crosby-Mertz, Inc., operator of the Shanty Store, will be able to retain its building at the corner of Fair and North Front streets under a ruling of the Appellate Division, which dismissed the claim of Harry Gilbert that he had prior right to purchase it.

The decision is in an action which dates back several years and reverses a previous decision in Supreme Court on March 8, 1952. Unless the Appellate Division decision is appealed by Gilbert, it will be final determination of the action and does not call for a new trial in Supreme Court.

Action was brought about 1950-1951 by Gilbert against the Van Kleeck estate and Crosby-Mertz, Inc., to set aside a conveyance of the premises from Van Kleeck to Crosby-Mertz, or to award damages to Gilbert from Van Kleeck.

Gilbert had a binder contract to purchase from Van Kleeck, while Crosby-Mertz held a lease with second option to purchase. Another tenant, Ferraro, had a lease with first option. Prior to (Continued on Page 5, Col. 4)

Taft Memorial Is To Perpetuate Senator's Ideals

Herbert Hoover Heads Group to Give Help to Schools, Other Education Means

Washington, July 13 (AP)—A non-profit organization to "perpetuate the ideals" of the late Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) was founded today, with former President Herbert Hoover as chairman.

The organization, described as non-political, will use its funds for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes. It is called the Robert A. Taft Memorial Foundation, Inc.

A statement announcing that articles of incorporation were filed in Baltimore today said President Eisenhower has agreed to serve as honorary chairman for the first term.

A list of original trustees included high officials of the Eisenhower administration, close friends and associates of the Ohio senator, who died July 31, 1953.

Office in Washington

With headquarters in Washington, D. C., the foundation will aid schools, libraries, individuals and publications "to promote the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding."

Speaking for the senator's family, Robert A. Taft Jr. of Cincinnati said he has had several talks with Yale University on the possibility of setting up some sort of memorial at that school, Taft's alma mater.

It was decided, he said, that a specific provision should be set (Continued on Page 13, Col. 3)

Atom Engine Produces Around-World Power

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The land-based model of the world's first nuclear submarine engine "has already produced more than enough power to send an atomic submarine around the world, fully submerged and at full speed."

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said so today in a report to the Senate and House recommending a series of changes in the basic Atomic Energy Act.

The engine, a land-based "prototype" of the atomic engine now installed in the U. S. S. Nautilus, is located at the Atomic Energy Commission's (AEC) testing site in eastern Idaho.

Speaking of prospects for economic atomic power for industry, however, the committee said only that such an objective "is on the horizon, though not within our immediate reach."

Eisenhower Proposals The legislation which the committee recommended would generally carry out President Eisenhower's recommendations for changes in the 1946 Atomic Act to allow exchange of some nuclear secrets with allied nations and permit private industry to enter the atomic power field.

The bill as a whole was unanimously approved by the 18-member committee, but some members expressed sharp dissents on some sections. The Senate may begin debate on the measure late today or tomorrow.

The committee headed by Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-N.Y.) praised the drafters of the original act, but said that changed (Continued on Page 20, Col. 6)

Jersey Man Pays $25 on Charge

The driver of an automobile owned by Jersey City's Department of Public Safety was fined $25 Monday afternoon on a reckless driving charge.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Glenford Myers of Saugerties, Philip Sutton, 48, of 24 Troy street, Jersey City, pleaded guilty to the charge, paid his fine and was released.

The arrest was made by Trooper Raymond H. Kowalski as a result of an accident at the junction of Routes 32 and 32A at Saxton, about six miles north of Saugerties, on July 6. Kowalski said Sutton listed his occupation as a uniformed (paid) fireman, and had been assigned to chauffeur the city-owned car.

Motor Vehicle Boss
Passengers in the vehicle at the time of the accident, according to the state police report, were Francis Harrigan; his wife, Elizabeth Harrigan, 40, and daughter, Betty Ann, 8, of 38 Carlton avenue, Jersey City. Harrigan is the city's motor vehicle commissioner, troopers said.

The Department of Public Safety car, a 1951 Cadillac sedan, was reported considerably damaged in collision with an automobile driven by Dietrich Vesper, 75, of Lafayette street, Saugerties. Vesper and his wife, 70, were taken to Kingston Hospital, where their conditions today were reported as "good." Mrs. Harrigan was also taken to the hospital, but has since been released.

Trooper Kowalski's report on the accident charged that Sutton was driving south on Route 32 and failed to heed the stop sign at the intersection.

Many Earn Merits At Scout Camp

Almost 100 Scouts, Explorers Scouts and troop leaders completed the first week of the six-week summer camping season last Saturday at Camp Tri-Mount.

Many merits were reported earned. Troop 44 of Catskill won the nature scavenger hunt on Tuesday evening. On Tuesday evening members of the Catskill and Kingston Rotary Clubs were guests and toured the camp. Two canoes presented by Kingston Rotary were officially launched.

On Wednesday Troop 74 of New Paltz hiked to North Lake and back across country by compass while Troop 44 of Catskill reached the top of Thomas Cole Mountain of the Blackhead group. They did their own cooking during the hikes.

Saturday was Cub Day at which time 140 youngsters under the leadership of 90 adults visited the camp. On Sunday a record registration of 102 Scouts lined up for admission. Registration for the third week is reported full, although more can be accommodated during the fourth, fifth and sixth weeks. The fourth week begins July 25.

Small Boy Is Injured In Car-Truck Collision

Nicholas Arena, 5, of 1365 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, was slightly injured in a car-truck collision at Broadway and East Chester street last night.

A police report at 6:45 p. m., said that John Di Rosa, 41, of 502 Knickerbocker avenue, Brooklyn, was headed west on East Chester street, turning south at Broadway, and a refrigerator truck of Ambrose, Inc., 364 Broadway, headed in the same direction, was also turning into Broadway. It was driven by Emilio P. Ambrose, of 361 Hasbrouck avenue.

The boy suffered "a scratch of the right thigh and was shaken up," the report said. He was to be treated by a doctor. The car was damaged on the front and windshield and the truck on its right rear and bumper.

Sharpshooter? Phooey!

Durban, South Africa, July 13 (AP)—A carnival sharpshooter who fires at a line up of bottles on a table from a speeding airplane was hooted off the program at the Durban Air Week festival today when spectators got an unscheduled look at the trick to his trade. Marksman George Pienaar fired, and bottles splintered, as the Tiger Moth plane in which he was a passenger swept by the table twice. But the third time, the slipstream of the plane whisked away the sides of the table—revealing a man underneath with a hammer in his hand.

Half and Half Approved

New York, July 13 (AP)—The City Board of Health has approved sale of "half and half," a mixture of milk and cream that can be marketed below the price of cream. The O.K. was given yesterday, and detailed regulations will be submitted to the board at its next meeting Sept. 12. Meanwhile, no date will be set for starting sale of the blend. The blend is designed for use with cereals and fruits and in coffee.

Judge Offers to Help Robinson End Drinking

Los Angeles, July 13 (AP)—"I want to stop drinking but I can't," Edward G. Robinson Jr. told the Domestic Relations Court yesterday.

"I've had some experience in those matters," replied Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle. "I'll show you how."

So the busy judge, who handles more than 100 cases a day, offered to set aside his lunch each day for two weeks to talk to the actor's 21-year-old son, who has been arrested three times in recent months for intoxication.

Young Robinson's wife, Frances, with whom he recently was reconciled, promised to help the judge.

"I hope it works," she said. "It must work."

Levine's Niece Wins $9,000 on TV Show

One of New York's popular dailies carries a photo today of a local man's niece being embraced by Duke Snider because of her knowledge of baseball.

Nathan Levine of 41 North Front street was happy when he saw it, because the caption explained Mrs. Samuel Schnitzer of Brooklyn and her family gave the correct answers to 10 baseball questions and received $9,000 on WABC's TV Break the Bank. It was the largest award in the history of the program, the paper said.

Back by Row Boat

Erding, Germany, July 13 (AP)—An U. S. Army helicopter pilot aiding in flood rescue work in Bavaria, told this one today: He plucked several marooned people from a farm house. Later he took a man from a house-top who looked vaguely familiar. "Didn't I bring you out a few hours ago?" the pilot asked. "Yes," replied the man. "I enjoy riding in a helicopter and so I went back by row boat."

Financial and Commercial

New York, July 13 (AP)—Active and higher railroads pointed the stock market ahead today in the early afternoon.

While gains went to around 2 points at the best, they were counterbalanced to a certain degree by losses that in cases went to between 1 and 2 points.

Trading was brisk, especially in the first hour, and volume hit a pace right around yesterday's 2,330,000 shares.

Cause of Death Given

New York, July 13 (AP)—Howland Englander, fisherman slain July 5 off a Manhattan beach pier, died of a crushed skull, the city's chief medical examiner reported today. At the same time, Englander's death was ruled "homicidal." Dr. Milton Helper reported these findings following an autopsy on Englander's body at the Bellevue Hospital morgue. Two men are being held in connection with the slaying, in which the victim was robbed of his car and $1 that he had in his pocket. They are Richard Connors, 23, and Ernest Lee Edwards, 24, both of Philadelphia.

Search Continues For Henn's Body

The search for the body of a 37-year-old IBM engineer missing since the collision early Saturday morning of a pleasure cruiser and a barge on the Hudson near the Esopus light continued today.

The Ulster county sheriff's department manned two boats and the Dutchess sheriff's department had another boat on the river. The authorities grappled in the river in an attempt to hook either the body or the sunken cruiser, Blackstone, which is believed to lie under 73 feet of water in the channel. They also searched the shore line for the body.

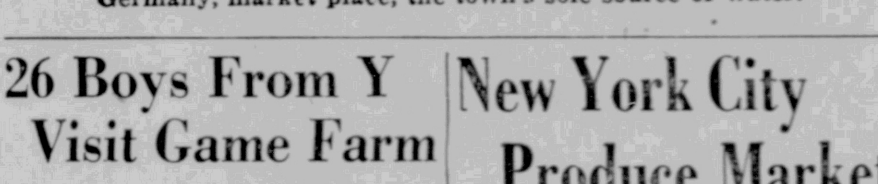

Army engineers told Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Quinlan of Dutchess county they expected to have a specially equipped craft in the area about noon today to help in the attempt to fix the location of the sunken Blackstone.

The missing man has been identified as Robert Henn, 37, of 17 Cedar Lane, Greenbush Park, near Poughkeepsie. Ten other passengers, including the owner, Clyde W. Roan of Highland, were taken to safety by the tug after the collision.

26 Boys From Y Visit Game Farm New York City Produce Market

Twenty-six members of the boys department of the YMCA enjoyed a trip to the Catskill Game Farm Monday. The group spent the morning seeing the various animals in the lower site and then went to the upper picnic ground to eat lunches. The afternoon was spent in the upper animal area.

The boys going on the trip were as follows: Mike Fleming, Bill Geisel, Edgar Harlow, Richard Coughlin, Wayne Bock, Joe Carchidi, Robert Hanley, Francis Tatarzewski, Dan Rice, John Rice, Robert Lane, Mike Kennedy, Larry Geuss, John Conlin, John Weishaupt, Richard Cyr, Chester Joy, Barry Kelly, Ronnie Hornbeck, Jason Ward, Richard Frasc, Roger Mogan, Don Volk, Henry Langley, John Volk, and Paul Fisher.

George McElroy and Jim Silvestri were in charge of the group. On the 26 of July the Boys Department is going on another trip to Bear Mountain State Park. Any boys whether Y members or not are invited to go. Further information may be had by phoning the Y.

Talks Are Concluded

Washington, July 13 (AP)—The Thailand Military Mission today concluded nine days of defense talks with high U. S. military officials and announced a stepped-up training program to meet any emergency on its borders with Indochina. Ambassador Pote Sarasin, acting as spokesman for the 12-man group said a possible line of action in case of armed aggression had been discussed with Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

W.J. Woestendiek, Saugerties, Gets Nieman Award

William J. Woestendiek, Sunday editor of the Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel, Winston-Salem, N. C., has been awarded a Nieman Fellowship by Harvard University. It has been announced by officials of the Nieman Foundation.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Woestendiek of Saugerties and a graduate of Saugerties High School.

Woestendiek was one of 12 newspapermen throughout the United States to receive Nieman awards. He will begin his college year study at Harvard in September, studying literature and the arts. He is 30 years old.

Woestendiek was editor of the Daily Tar Heel and a Phi Beta Kappa while at the University of North Carolina from which he was graduated in 1947. The following year he received a master's degree from the Columbia School of Journalism, Columbia University.

He served in the army for three years during World War 2 and was called back during the Korean War to serve as intelligence officer for 15 months. A weekly column he sent to the Journal and Sentinel from Korea won second place in feature writing in the 1952 North Carolina Press Association contest.

He has been active in dramatics in Winston-Salem, starring in a play at Salem College last year and in The Front Page, recently produced by the Little Theatre.

He is married to the former Josephine Pugh of Asheboro, N. C., whom he met while they were students at the University of North Carolina. They have two children, Kathy, 4, and John, nine months, and make their home in College Village, Winston-Salem.

Of All Places

Arlington, Va. (AP)—The highways around the Pentagon, which houses this country's defense department, are termed "one of the most serious traffic hazards" on the Eastern Seaboard by the American Motorist, monthly magazine of the American Automobile Assn. The magazine said its safety director reported that directional signs were too close to intersections and turn-offs, that the signs were made of wood and were black on white and hard to read at night. It reported that the area was the scene of 139 accidents in a year, with 32 persons injured.

Would Abolish Schools To Keep Negroes Out

Jackson, Miss., July 13 (AP)—A constitutional amendment opening the door for abolishing public schools was recommended by Mississippi's committee seeking ways to dodge the U. S. Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public education.

Gov. Hugh White said yesterday he would call the Legislature into special session early in September to consider the proposed amendment to Mississippi's 64-year-old constitution.

It would authorize the Legislature by a two-thirds vote to abolish public schools, statewide or on a local option basis, if necessary to maintain segregation.

Members of Mississippi's Legal Education Advisory Committee declared it would be used only as a last resort.

The amendment is viewed as a safeguard if Negroes try to force school integration. It could be held over their heads as a threat—co-operate or lose your public schools.

Private, segregated schools with state aid could be set up under the amendment.

A group of Negroes already has met with Governor White seeking a voluntary solution to maintain segregated schools—apparently on the "separate but equal" formula which the U. S. Supreme Court said has no place in public education.

The amendment, if approved by the Legislature and a vote of the people, would untie the Legislature's hands, wiping out the present constitutional requirement that public schools be provided.

Nassau Urges Dewey

Franklin Square, N. Y., July 13 (AP)—Nassau county Republicans, following the example of numerous other Republican groups, have urged Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to seek a fourth term this fall. J. Russel Sprague, longtime county leader and former Republican national committeeman, said Dewey will decide within the next few days whether to run again. Sprague said the county committee's resolution, adopted unanimously last night, was designed to help Dewey make up his mind in favor of another term. The committee's resolution was endorsed by some 4,500 cheering Republicans at a party rally.

Turner Withdraws

Oklahoma City, July 13 (AP)—Former Gov. Roy J. Turner withdrew from Oklahoma's second primary election last night, automatically giving the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senate to Sen. Robert S. Kerr without the scheduled runoff July 27. The Democratic nomination is tantamount to election in Oklahoma. Turner, though personally wealthy with cattle and oil millions, said lack of finances prevented him making the campaign for the runoff. Under Oklahoma law no candidate may personally spend more than $3,000 in the Senate race. Turner said "pressure" on friends—through whom big campaigns are generally financed—"prevented them from cooperating as originally intended. He accused Kerr of buying the first primary election.

Buggy Whip Tree Gone

Rolla, Mo. (AP)—They cut down this Ozark city's famous "buggy whip" tree the other day. It was 90 years old and not so hardy anymore. The sprout was planted by Robert Love, early day Phelps county sheriff. Hurling home from Jefferson City, he was caught in a flash flood at the Gasconade river ford but managed to save his team and himself. He cut a silver maple branch for a buggy whip and just stuck the branch in the mud when he got home. The sprout outlived him by many years.

CHECK ON VANDALISM

Juvenile delinquency frequently manifests itself in the form of vandalism. School windows are broken, private property is destroyed and even churches in some communities have suffered from malicious destruction.

A national student organization, Key Club international which is sponsored by Kiwanis clubs, intends to launch a two week campaign to prevent vandalism. It will begin the last two weeks of October, in the hope that it may be able to eliminate some of the special vandalism that seems to be reserved for Halloween.

Young people out to prevent juvenile delinquency enjoy an advantage over adults trying to do the same job. They are the same age as the delinquents, know how their minds work and may know what action to take to stop vandalism before it starts.

The Key Club plan will help to protect property, will give the youngsters who carry it out a chance to develop a sense of social responsibility. More important it may be able to prevent some youngsters from committing acts of violence which could mark their first step down a path that leads to a life of crime and violence. If one young person could be saved the campaign would be worthwhile.

PERSONAL QUESTIONS

Today men seek desperately to find some formula for preventing war for inducing nations to cooperate with one another in peace and harmony. Sometimes it seems that we have exhausted every effort along this line. There have been alliances and treaties, disarmament pacts and international forums set up for the discussion of the problems that lead to war.

Yet can there ever be peace in the world as long as men envy one another, suspect one another and even hate one another? Can there be any hope to avoid wars so long as the law which is basic to all the great religions of the world "love one another" is ignored?

It is well for each of us to study these questions for ourselves. We must learn to live as good neighbors with the people who live in the house next to ours before we can expect to enjoy good relationship with people separated from us by oceans. We must strive to understand our own families, to know why they act as they do and why we must restrain our tempers in family disagreements, before we can succeed in settling the complex differences that arise between men who speak different languages.

A man who puts into practice the doctrine of love which is a part of his religious faith may never notice the world growing any better. But he will become aware that the portion of it that he occupies is a more pleasant place in which to live. And, after all, the world is the sum total of all the people who make it up. An improvement, even the smallest and least noticeable improvement, is a gain.

PRESIDENT UNDER FIRE

Announcement that the Civil Defense Administration will move its headquarters from Washington to Battle Creek, Michigan is proof that officials are giving consideration to ways to maintain the orderly processes of government in case of an enemy attack. This recalls the last time our capital was threatened, on July 11, 1864, when Confederate forces actually penetrated to the outskirts of Washington.

Federal reinforcements arrived in time to save the city. President Lincoln journeyed to Fort Stevens to watch the Confederate attack. It is said that just three feet from where he stood an officer was killed by sharpshooter fire. A high ranking officer ordered him, as sharply as a general can ever order a President, to take cover.

Later presidents have journeyed to war areas, as President Roosevelt did and more recently President Eisenhower did on his trip to Korea. But the incident at Fort

REDUCTION OF TENSION

In Stockholm, between June 19 and 23, a conference was held for the reduction of tension in international affairs. The conference was initiated by French public men including deputies of the National Assembly. Representatives of 30 nations are reported to have been present, including a Quaker from the United States.

This is one of those numerous conferences initiated by Soviet Russia with the object of forming public opinion on particular subjects. This one is part of the revived United Front movement which seeks again to bring within the Soviet orbit non-Communist and even anti-Communist elements who can agree on one special objective. The most significant of these United Front movements in the United States was the League for Peace and Democracy (the League Against War and Fascism) which achieved a membership of 4,000,000.

The Stockholm Conference for the Reduction of World Tension was designed to start an agitation for terminating the "cold war." "Pravda" said of this:

"What accounts for the indubitable fact that this initiative by French public figures has been met in all countries of the world with such a great response and support and has made it possible to hold such a representative conference? This is due, above all, to the fact that millions of people in all countries of the world are demanding an end to the 'Cold War' waged by the aggressive circles of the United States. The peoples demand the easing of international tension. They demand the cessation of the armaments race, of wars now in progress, and thus to free mankind from the sorrow, suffering, and privation caused by these wars."

In Europe and Asia the propaganda has been effective that the United States started the "Cold War." The rejection by Soviet Russia, inside and outside of the United Nations since 1945, of the American desire to find a formula for peace is forgotten. Those Americans who bitterly opposed the ideas of General Douglas MacArthur when he could have implemented them are now turning to MacArthur as the man who was right about Korea, but what they fail to recognize is that an historic mistake, once made, sets off a chain of events which rarely can be overtaken. An outcome of the rejection of MacArthur is the acceptance by many in Europe and Asia that the victor belongs the spoils and that the Korean War was a victory for the Soviet Universal State.

The Stockholm Conference passed a resolution stating:

"The difference in the political and social systems does not mean by itself an inevitable cause leading to war. Peaceful coexistence is fully feasible provided that the rights of all peoples, big and small, are recognized both de facto and de jure."

What today is meant by co-existence? Politically it can be translated into a demand that the United States withdraw its opposition to a seat for Red China in the United Nations. This is the proposal that Sir Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden brought to President Eisenhower. This is the proposition that aroused the ire of Senators William Knowland and Lyndon Johnson, the Republican and Democratic leaders of the Senate.

That co-existence means that politically is stated clearly by "Pravda" in a report on the Stockholm Conference:

"The participants at the conference demand that the United Nations reflect correctly the real relationships in the world and should become an all-embracing organization. It can become such an organization only when the People's Republic of China is restored to its lawful place within that organization and when all States which have applied or will apply for membership of the United Nations are admitted to that organization."

Co-existence is like a tap, turned on and off by the Kremlin as required for propaganda purposes. Its present manifestation is related to the seating of Red China in the United Nations and the development of East-West trade. It is designed to separate the United States from its allies; in fact, to isolate the United States diplomatically.

Let us not underestimate the success of this effort on the part of the Kremlin. Great Britain, France, India and many other countries that are of importance to the United States in the event of war have accepted the idea of co-existence as here defined. They regard the United States as a stumbling block to the establishment of peace in the world—a Russian ploy.

EMERGENCY TREATMENT OF BURNS
Burns are such a common occurrence that most of us tend to neglect them which may be dangerous. Let us see what an authority, Dr. Harvey S. Allen of Northwestern University has to say on the emergency treatment of the burned patient.

"Simple cleaning of the burned place with bland soap and water and the application of an antiseptic dressing are the only requirements for most small burns. Once the outside air is shut off, the pain will subside."

The dressing is left untouched for five or six days, then is removed gently, being careful not to tear the new skin which has formed. Local drugs applied directly have little effect on the healing and often prove harmful.

For treatment of large burns, the best immediate care is to cover the injured part and quickly drive the patient to a place where adequate treatment is possible. Here the burned area is cleaned and all visible foreign material removed.

It is usually difficult to tell just how badly a patient is burnt when he is first seen, so the usual procedure is to put sterile petroleum gauze over all the burned area except the nose and mouth. Sterile fluffed gauze and large sterile pads are next applied and the whole area carefully bandaged to provide a firm, even pressure. This pressure dressing helps decrease oozing at the site of the burn.

When arms or legs are involved, the limb is splinted in the position of use. Burned fingers are dressed individually.

The dressing is left undisturbed for about a week, or four to five days if the face is involved, and then changed down as far as the petroleum gauze layer. Mild burns usually will appear dry and moderately pink.

When over 10 per cent of the body surface is burned, there is danger of shock, and fluids must be given to replace those which pour out of the burned area. Blood plasma may be necessary. The patient's pulse rate, color, degree of restlessness, thirst and output of urine must be observed constantly. Often anemia and lack of protein in the blood appear after seventy-two hours after a severe burn and should be treated with high protein (meat, egg) diets and blood transfusions.

When skin grafting is necessary after a severe burn, it should be done as early as possible to avoid infection and decrease the protein loss from so much oozing.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA)—It would make a better story if it could be reported that the success of the Guatemala revolution which threw out the Communists was the result of some fast cloak-and-dagger work by American operatives dropped in by parachute to mastermind the rebels' drive on the capital.

Communist propaganda may still try to put over the tale that the Arbenz government was overthrown by a plot cooked up in Washington.

In the interests of truth, however, it must be reported that the moves which Washington did plan didn't work out as expected at all. In this respect, the Guatemalan affair was just another Latin-American comedy-of-errors war.

Furthermore, communications between Washington and Guatemala broke down completely in the shooting stages of the revolution. The Communist government in Guatemala City stopped all airplane flights and censored all cables and long distance phone calls.

No diplomatic pouches came to Washington during the last week in June and presumably no couriers got through in the other direction.

That left U. S. Ambassador John E. Peurifoy in Guatemala pretty much on his own. What-ever grand strategy may have been worked out was his. It was a dish to his capable liking.

His success seems to have been due to being Johnny-on-the-job at all times and in knowing how and where to get hold of the right people on both sides at the correct moment, when they wanted to deal.

There was no lack of desire on the part of Washington to have the Communist government of President Arbenz kicked out. Straight diplomacy was tried at the Caracas conference. It didn't work too well and reacted against the best U. S. interests.

The only thing they could figure was that he intended to arm the Communist labor unions and the agricultural workers, and overthrow the army. That was when Col. Carlos Castillo Armas started his revolution.

Then the Guatemalan air force defected—all half dozen pilots—taking both planes with them. That was important. When they started strafing the capital, it really threw the fear of God into the Communist government.

Still, when President Arbenz abdicated and turned the government over to the first military junta under Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz, the experts in Washington who were supposed to be masterminding the operation couldn't understand what the pressure was.

Col. Castillo Armas was still miles away. And there was no fighting at all near Guatemala City. Just a big scare.

But that was all that was necessary. Communist officials started seeking diplomatic sanctuary in the Mexican embassy. And the Communist beachhead in Guatemala is apparently busted.

Rain Welcomed

Hutchinson, Kan. (AP)—Barrage, displayed for a state meeting, got caught in a heavy rain. The convention over, curious residents wondered why they weren't removed.

"We're so tickled with this three-inch rain, we decided to leave the flags up for it," grinned Ray Fausbion, Chamber of Commerce manager. Under questioning, he admitted there was another reason. The rain caused the flags to swell firmly in their sockets and they couldn't be removed immediately.

George Monaghan was tossed out of the police department when Mayor Wagner took office. One special reason was that Monaghan defended one of his cops against persecution by the U. S. Department of Justice for subduing a subway employee who was a member of Mike Quill's CIO union of transport workers.

Quill gave a lot of union money to Wagner's campaign and during that campaign Wagner could not be bothered to affirm or deny that he had persecuted Quill or opportunity to drag him in or most of the cops into his union. In that case, Quill would have absolute control of the police because the transport workers are a radical organization with a proven record of lawless violence which holds, in common with other unions, the loyalty to the union comes before many other loyalties.

Quill's subject got into a petty scrap with a policeman in muffs in a remote neighborhood late at night. Words led to blows, the Quill man was slashed and the policeman found himself in jeopardy in three areas. First he was charged with ordinary assault. Then the State Grand Jury made a pass at him. Then the U. S. Grand Jury indicted him pursuant to a pernicious policy of the Department of Justice.

The cop was tried in the Federal Court and convicted of denying this Quill character some illudery portion of some indefinable right by fetching him a poke in the snout in the rough-and-tumble of an ordinary man-fashion fight between two guys who were well able to take care of themselves.

However, as soon as the jury convicted the cop the judge reversed the verdict, thus upholding Monaghan's contention that the Department of Justice has more important business to do with its money and ought to reduce its budget if it hasn't. The

Today in Washington

Big Crisis in World Affairs, Diplomacy Exists Today, Events Reveal

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, July 13—America's "agonizing reappraisal" of the world situation is not far away. The trip of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to Paris at this time is one of the first moves in the process.

It will be recalled that Mr. Dulles several months ago warned the French that, unless the European Defense Community were ratified, the United States would have to make "an agonizing reappraisal" of its world policies, the clarifying definition was ever supplied, but it has been generally believed that, if France and Britain pursued policies that isolated the United States, it would become necessary to re-examine America's past policies and assumptions as well.

There is at present a far-reaching crisis in world affairs. The French cabinet realized it is defeated in Indo-China and is preparing some form of surrender. But it wants an American blessing to be given to the so-called "settlement," so it will seem more palatable to the French people.

Great Britain is trying to side with France but also wants a cue from America as to what to do. When Secretary Dulles and Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith dealt with the problems that arose at Geneva, they made it crystal clear that the United States was not in favor of appeasing the Communists in Indo-China or anywhere else.

There was a brief period recently when America considered military intervention in Indo-China, but the French government, while discussing the matter on a hypothetical basis, never really requested intervention. The reason was a fear that, if the United States did intervene, it would mean the internationalization of the war and this might result in a prolonged conflict. The pressure in France has been to get out of Indo-China at almost any cost. This pressure comes to a large extent from the Communist deputies—100 of them—who hold the balance of power in the French Parliament, and from the leftist groups who have been influenced by what seemed to them a popular cry for the ending of the war in Indo-China.

But now that the time is at hand for scuttling the Indo-China war by retreat and evacuation, the French cabinet is ill at ease. Frantic appeals were made to the American government last week to send a top-level official to attend the Geneva conference, where Messrs. Molotov of Russia, Chou En-lai of Communist China and Foreign Secretary Eden of Britain were ready to meet with Premier Mendes-France. This could only mean arrangements for the funeral of allied hopes for an honorable Indo-China settlement.

The United States government replied last Friday that it couldn't see the wisdom of sending a top-level official back to Geneva, because America would have to speak its mind plainly and in the end this could complicate matters for the French if they were really bent on surrendering or appeasing or retreating—whatever the descriptive phrase for ending the Indo-China war on the enemy's terms really is.

But the French felt badly about America's abstention and again urged that someone from the Department of State come to talk things over. So Mr. Dulles conferred with President Eisenhower on Monday of this week and decided that, as a courtesy to the French, the best thing to do was for the secretary of state to fly to Paris and hold conferences there. Whether or not Mr. Dulles goes to Geneva—an hour away from Paris by plane—depends on what tangible results crop up at the Swiss center of diplomatic effort.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Churchill dispelled one source of anxiety that had arisen since he left Washington. He declared that Britain didn't favor Red China's admission to the United Nations "at the moment," which means that the matter will be deferred for some time to come even though Mr. Churchill reaffirms his belief that ultimately such a course should be taken. He revealed, incidentally, that the matter of admitting Red China into the United Nations figured very little in his talks with President Eisenhower. The real controversy arose afterward when reports became current that Premier Mendes-France, in order to get Chou En-lai's approval of peace terms, had to promise something about supporting Red China's bid for entry into the Security Council of the UN.

But the forthright expressions from Majority Leader Knowland and Minority Leader Johnson in the U. S. Senate, together with the legislation proposed to cut down on foreign aid, may have had a sobering effect on those abroad who were pressing for a Red China matter. For the present, therefore, nothing will be done about it, and American leadership on this issue has received a strong measure of support throughout the world.

Mr. Churchill also emphasized in his report to the House of Commons the deep-seated fear that he has about the H-bomb. This subject is bound to influence world policy more and more as the stories of terror, some of them innocently spread and others deliberately exaggerated, are distributed with the possible result that the "will to fight" in France and Britain will be paralyzed. If Britain and France are to be neutral because of the H-bomb, America's whole strategy in getting and keeping allies in Asia and Europe may have to be completely revised.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, July 11—Some elements of our press are taking satisfaction in the fact that a subcommittee of the House committee on judiciary took a mild fall out of George Monaghan, who was New York police commissioner under Impelleri, for trying to protect good, conscientious cops from outrageous persecution by the Federal Department of Justice. The truth is that Monaghan did make or try to make a deal with the department to quit harassing these cops.

George Monaghan was tossed out of the police department when Mayor Wagner took office. One special reason was that Monaghan defended one of his cops against persecution by the U. S. Department of Justice for subduing a subway employee who was a member of Mike Quill's CIO union of transport workers.

Quill gave a lot of union money to Wagner's campaign and during that campaign Wagner could not be bothered to affirm or deny that he had persecuted Quill or opportunity to drag him in or most of the cops into his union. In that case, Quill would have absolute control of the police because the transport workers are a radical organization with a proven record of lawless violence which holds, in common with other unions, the loyalty to the union comes before many other loyalties.

Quill's subject got into a petty scrap with a policeman in muffs in a remote neighborhood late at night. Words led to blows, the Quill man was slashed and the policeman found himself in jeopardy in three areas. First he was charged with ordinary assault. Then the State Grand Jury made a pass at him. Then the U. S. Grand Jury indicted him pursuant to a pernicious policy of the Department of Justice.

The cop was tried in the Federal Court and convicted of denying this Quill character some illudery portion of some indefinable right by fetching him a poke in the snout in the rough-and-tumble of an ordinary man-fashion fight between two guys who were well able to take care of themselves.

However, as soon as the jury convicted the cop the judge reversed the verdict, thus upholding Monaghan's contention that the Department of Justice has more important business to do with its money and ought to reduce its budget if it hasn't. The FBI has been loath to butt into all such situations, but has been compelled to do so under pressure. The result has been unfortunate bad blood between two corps of law-enforcement agents which ought to cooperate heartily and without reservation for the public good.

In other New York cases where courageous cops took dangerous chances and were mutilated by low specimens of humanity in sudden disturbances, the same pestiferous procedure ensued. Not one cop was found guilty of violating any "civil rights" or of rampaging drunk or hop-head by using sufficient force to make an arrest according to his duty. It is always up to the policeman to decide how much force is necessary in dangerous conditions on the spur of the instant. If he doesn't use enough he may be fined and his murderer may get away with will others. In none of these cases was there the slightest pretense that the persons arrested were innocent. On the contrary, most of them were admittedly violent.

Under Brownell in the Eisenhower administration as under varying succession of political executives who served as attorneys-general in the Roosevelt-Truman reign, there has been an insulting distinction between the denial of "civil rights" by cops and far more flagrant denial of the same "rights" by union pickets. The cop who jabs a drunk in the plexus with three fingers is a rogue to be thrown into prison. The wantonly murdering picket is beneath the notice of the same authorities.

All Monaghan did was try to make a deal with the Department of Justice to mind its own business. The papers which hold that this was an evil deal come not before the public with clean hands for, as every journalist knows, they lack the honesty and courage to tell the truth.

Yanks and Reds Work to Save U. S. Airfield, Villages

Vienna, Austria, July 13 (AP)—American and Russian troops worked within a few hundred yards of each other outside Vienna today in an effort to save a U. S. airfield and two Austrian villages from floods.

The waters of the swollen Danube river—raging downstream after leaving 70,000 homeless in Germany and western Austria—threatened the U. S. Air Force base at Tulln. Isolated in the Russian occupation zone of Austria, it is 22 miles northwest of Vienna's American sector.

German officials said the airfield was "pretty much out of danger" unless the waters took a big rise.

Floods from the Danube approached within 200 yards of the field, inundating the communities of Tulln and Langenleithen and flooding a road connecting them with the airfield.

The Russians sent troops and trucks to one stretch of the road, while the Americans sent trucks and scores of airmen to another stretch.

The police said there was no actual cooperation between the two sides.

"They pass by each other on the highway, but they ignore each other," one official said.

The flood, the worst in centuries in Central Europe, took another victim last night. A 3-year-old child fell into the swirling Danube near Vienna, bringing the total dead reported in Austria and East and West Germany to 28.

Conservative estimates placed property damage at hundreds of millions of dollars.

A fire, which firemen think might have started from a tramp light, left on its top, damaged a trunk and contents in the attic of Mrs. Nellie Decker, 122 Hurley avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Decker and her son poured pails of water on the blaze before arrival of firemen, who were called at 5:18 p. m. Blankets and clothing in the trunk were destroyed and the fire caused heavy smoke in the attic. Men and equipment from Wiltwyck station answered the call.

A call at 3:40 p. m., was to Katz's Scrap Iron Yard, 160 Hasbrouck avenue, where a torch being used on an automobile ignited the inside. Engine 2 from Cornell station responded.

the transactions involved, Ferraro had either assigned his lease or sublet his quarters in the building to another party.

Precedence and right of assignment of the first option, and the effect of the options upon the binder contract under the conditions existing all became matters to be determined by the court in the involved case.

The original Supreme Court decision, dated March 8, 1952, was in favor of Gilbert and set aside the deed to Crosby-Mertz, directing Van Kleeck to give title to Gilbert on the subject that the binder agreement was valid and not subject to the options because the options contemplated a removal of tenants. Gilbert did not contemplate removing the tenants. The court further ruled at that time that even if the options were operative, the assignment of the first option to Gilbert by Ferraro was in effect as he had merely sublet to the other party and retained for himself the option to purchase.

On appeal, the Appellate Division held in a unanimous decision dated July 8, 1954, that the options in the leases were not assignable apart from the leases themselves; therefore, any assignment of the first option was inoperative and Crosby-Mertz' second option became operative. Further, it held that since Gilbert's binder contract was subject to existing tenancies it therefore was also subject to options in the lease. Bernard A. Culliton was local attorney for Crosby-Mertz, with the Attorney Samuel W. Eager, Jr., of the law firm of Veraldi, Van Fleet and Eager of Middletown handling the appeal.

North Carolina Blazes Cause Million Losses

High Point, N. C., July 13 (AP)—Fires burned out sections of three industrial areas today near the center of this furniture manufacturing town of 40,000. Fire Chief Claude Canady said there was definite suspicion that the separate fires were purposely set. The High Point Enterprise estimated the loss would aggregate one million dollars.

The first fire was discovered late last night in the Jiffy Manufacturing Co., where the main building roof was badly damaged. About midnight a second fire was discovered in buildings occupied by the Monarch Furniture Co. and the B. & H. Upholstery Co. While firemen from High Point and six other cities and towns battled the first two, a third fire lit up the skies about 4 a. m., as buildings of the Snow Lumber Co. broke into flame. The Snow company's main shop was saved by a fortunate wind-shift about 4:30 a. m. Several other buildings and stacks of lumber were destroyed.

Chief Canady said the fires were separated in such manner that sparks from one could not have caused the others.

The catcher agreed. But in the meantime the opposing team's coach had called the batter and had given him some instructions and sent him back to the plate.

The stage was set for the deciding pitch. The pitcher went through his motions and brought his arm down with a sharp snap

The pitcher didn't say a word because he couldn't. If he had admitted that he still had the ball, the man on third would have scored on a balk.

C of C Reaches 502 Memberships

Membership in the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce reached the 500 mark today.

President N. Jansen Fowler and John H. Haulenbeck, chairman of the Chamber's membership committee, made this announcement this morning.

The campaign, which closed Saturday, resulted in 86 new members since the beginning of the fiscal year May 1. Some renewals are still payable but 502 active memberships are now enrolled in the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce.

The final copy for the classified membership or business directory was taken to the printer today. A spokesman for the Chamber said that there is a possibility that additional memberships received too late for inclusion in the directory may be placed on a mimeographed list and distributed with the printed directory.

The present active membership is the highest enjoyed by the chamber during the past six years.

About half the homes in the United States are more than 30 years old.

Addition of Eggs
Adding eggs to a yeast bread helps produce a fine and delicate texture and, like sugar, they encourage a golden-brown crust. Sometimes, before baking yeast

Sometimes, before baking yeast rolls, try brushing their surface with a beaten-egg mixture; this gives them a shiny golden sheen.

Let's put the Finger on a fact!

The average cost of a unit of electricity is less now than in 1940!

- In 1940 the average home used 76 units of electricity (kilowatt-hours) a month and paid $4.00 for it . . . an average of approximately 4.6 cents per unit.
- Today the average home uses 186 units of electricity a month and pays $6.80 for it . . . an average of approximately 3.6 cents per unit.

These figures are right out of the book — no fooling! Your electric bills are up. But because you are using electricity more and more to do more and more work in your home. Not because the average price per kilowatt-hour of electricity has gone up a lot!

Name any other commodity in daily use in your home, the quantity and quality remaining the same, that costs less than it did a few years back!

Alice Henderson

Fund Is Commenced

Woodstock, July 12—It was the intention of a group of friends of the late Alice Henderson, who during her lifetime contributed so much to many projects in this village, to have Kenneth Wilson, assemblyman, officially start a fund in her memory. Mr. Wilson, however, is at present in the Benedictine Hospital and will probably undergo surgery the early part of this week. In his place his brother, Lewis Wilson, is in charge of the fund.

This village has suffered a great loss in the passing of Alice Henderson on June 23. Woodstockers know how unselfishly and devotedly she gave of her time and energy to help the community in which she lived and loved. Not only was she an ardent worker in all civic enterprises, but she was also a true friend and neighbor.

To pay tribute to Miss Henderson and all she stood for, her friends feel she should have a lasting memorial. One of her greatest interests for years has been the Woodstock Library. They would like to make it possible to give something to the library in her name. Contributions will be gratefully accepted for this purpose and checks may be made payable to Lewis R. Wilson, treasurer. The committee in charge of the fund is as follows: Joseph Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Frederica Milne, Mrs. Fred Dana Marsh, Mrs. George Laws, the Rev. Harvey I. Todd, Lewis R. Wilson and Miss Anita Stallforth.

Society to Meet

Woodstock, July 12—The Historical Society of Woodstock will have its second regular meeting of the season at Craig Vosburgh's sawmill in Shady, Friday, July 16, at 4 p. m. Material now being collected by the society for its new booklet will be read. Members are requested to bring their own picnic supplies.

Art Show to Open

Woodstock, July 12—The Ten Choose Three show of the Woodstock Artists Association will open at the Art Gallery Saturday, July 17, and will continue through July 29. The show will be composed of painting and sculpture and each of the ten jurors will exhibit one work and invite three other artists to show one example each. The public is invited to attend.

Moves to Woodstock

Woodstock, July 12—The Saxton Fells School of Art, under the direction of A. A. Champian, will be moved from its location in Kingston to Woodstock, July 31.

Church to Hold Fair

Woodstock, July 12—The annual fair and supper held by the Kings Daughter of Shady will be Thursday on the grounds of the Methodist Church in Shady. The fair will begin at 2 p. m. with a food table, a table for fancy articles and a refreshment booth. Supper will begin at 5:30 p. m. and will conclude when all are served.

Slides Kill Five

Medellin, Colombia, July 13 (AP)—At least five persons were killed and 60 injured by landslides near here yesterday. A search for more victims continued during the night. The first landslide attracted many rescuers and onlookers. A second slide buried many in the crowd. Radio calls were issued for physicians and nurses.

Uniforms for Army

Saginaw, Mich. (AP)—Army Capt. William A. Fahanstiel usually gets a $50 uniform allowance. The last check, by mistake, was made out for $23,928. "That wasn't so bad," he said, "but they transposed the 'ie' in my name so I couldn't cash it."

150 Day Campers Begin Third Week

More than 150 campers were on hand for the third week of the YMCA Day Camp at DeWitt Lake Monday, hoping for a break in the weather.

The first two weeks of camp saw the campers enter all phases of the summer program despite the cool and damp weather. At the war front, swimming instructions were given but some of the youngsters are reported to be slow in learning due to the cool temperatures.

Lou Schafer, camp director, indicated that many of the campers are ready to start swimming and with a few warm days many will be making enough progress to complete their first test of 10 beginner's skills concluding with a swim of 75 feet. Meanwhile, others in camp taking advanced swimming will take their tests this week so that they may earn the coveted Fish and Flying Fish Club emblems. To gain this award swimmers must master 10 skills in each club group work, ending with the 100-yard swim for the Fish and 220-yards for the Flying Fish. "All we need is a few warm days," Schafer pointed out, "and we'll have a lot of good swimmers in camp."

Events Are Slated

Emphasis also will be placed this week on the mid-camp swimming and diving championships scheduled for the fourth week in camp. Boys and girls have the opportunity to earn their blue, red and white ribbons in these events and much of the week will be devoted to rehearsing for the championships.

Other than the swimming work, the two camp pine groves have seen considerable activity in supervised games, craft work and story-telling.

New campers this week in the junior group include Kathy Smalidon, Charles Stopczynski, Wayne Rundle, Christine Savatgy, Kay Hotelling, Richard Scism, Robert Burkhart, Billy Bruce, Steve Rowland, Roger Gilie, Joan Bense, Sue Ann Enlist, Donnie Schryver, Ronald Curran, Barry Van Etten, Linda Carlson and Jeffrey Sperling.

Senior camp newcomers include Lawrence Lohman, Robert Jaenisch, Rocky Broberg, Marcia Dittus, Anita Gianuzzi, Louise Vendetti, Joseph Metscher, Steve Eckdich, Philip Cullum, Richard Taylor, Frank Sperling, Sharon Hamel, Stephen Palen, Maja Hinc, Robert East, Joan Weighell, Augustus Bonse, Janet Van Derbeck, Briana Myers, Michael Fleming, Ronald Lifshin, Jane Engle, James Freese, Sandra Grier and Claudette Stephens.

Flaming Economy

Valparaiso, Ind. (AP)—Firemen standing by as an old residence went up in flames told passers-by they were there to see that the house burned down. They started the fire. The owner decided it was cheaper to burn down the house than to salvage it.

Teachers Announced For Cottekill School

Mrs. Virginia Fiore Martin of Kingston will teach in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Cottekill School in District 5. Town of Rosendale, when school opens in September, it was announced by the trustees of the School District. Mrs. Martin graduated Magna Cum Laude from Kingston High School in 1949 and from New Paltz State Teachers College in 1952 where she received a BS degree. She has taught for two years in the Napanoch School of the Ellenville Central District.

Warren Schoonmaker of Kingston will return to teach the intermediate grades and also has an appointment as principal of the Cottekill School. During the summer months, Schoonmaker will conduct the summer playground program for the Cottekill-Binnewater District sponsored by the New York State Youth Commission.

Miss Gladys Paulus of Kingston will begin her first year as teacher in the Cottekill School in the primary grades after having taught for the last two years in the Kerhonkson Central School.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Here's a Lesson To Remember

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

"When you're playing rubber bridge, make sure of your contract first and then let the extra tricks take care of themselves."

This is a lesson that B. Jay Becker often teaches at the Card School in New York. Becker, whom his fellow experts consider the most careful player in the country, sometimes uses the hand shown today as an illustration of this principle.

West leads the jack of spades, and the average player pounces on the trick with a gurgling glee. He expects to draw trumps and run the diamonds, winning at least five trump tricks, five diamonds, and the ace of clubs.

Our average player is doomed to disappointment. After South has drawn two rounds of trumps, he cannot make the contract. If West is given his trump trick, he will switch to hearts, and the defenders will take enough hearts to defeat the contract.

If South draws three rounds of trumps and then begins the diamonds, West will ruff the third round of diamonds and South must then lose three hearts and a club in addition to West's trump trick.

Becker then shows how the game contract should be fulfilled. South must refuse to win the first trick.

The defenders cannot safely switch to hearts, since dummy still has a trump to stop that suit. If West continues trumps, or switches to diamonds or clubs for that matter, South can draw the trumps and make sure of four trump tricks, five diamonds, and the ace of clubs for the 10 tricks that he needs for his contract.

$1,600 State Aid Granted 3 Areas

The New York State Youth Commission has announced allocation of state aid for recreation projects over a 12-month period in two towns and one village of Ulster county.

Town of Esopus, which intends spending $2,575, will receive $1,000 from the state, the report said. Supervisor Edward R. Eckert in applying for aid indicated that volleyball, badminton, softball, archery, Little League baseball and movies are planned. Facilities to be used includes Ross Memorial Park, Port Ewen. Director of recreation is Frank Amato.

Town of Ulster, contemplating an expenditure of $600.20, will receive $300.10 to show movies at Eddyville, Town Garage, East Kingston School and Lake Katrine. Supervisor Percy Bush applied for the state aid. Reginald D. Russell is the director of recreation.

Mayor John J. Mooney, indicating that the Village of Rosendale will spend $600, applied for $300 state aid to be spent for baseball, ping pong, games, archery and horseshoes at the village school.

Each of the towns have participated in the State Youth Commission's recreation program for three years, and this is the sixth for Rosendale. There are 830 municipalities taking advantage of the arrangement, the commission reported.

Burial of Clinton

July 9, 1954

Editor, The Freeman:

In your interesting article on the burial of Governor Clinton you give the date at 1907. On reading the item I referred to a diary I kept at that time and under the date Friday, May 29, 1908, I find—

"Went down to the boat house at Kingston Point and saw the flotilla come in with Governor Clinton's remains aboard."

And the next day, Saturday, May 30, 1908—"We all went down to Ned Palen's place to see the parade but we only succeeded in getting wet. After lunch Captain Webb (a retired naval officer living at the Huntington) brought the captains of the three submarines, Captains Bingham, Marquart and Daniel, to call on us."

Hardy Lichen Topic At Garden Club In Nieuw Dorp

Miss Bessie Brewster spoke on the topic, The Toughest Plant, the Lichen, at the meeting Friday of the Little Gardens Club at the Nieuw Dorp in Hudson. Miss Brewster said that when the red disc of Mars came closest to the earth a few years ago, astronomers took a picture of almost airless desolation; a nearly airless world with no oceans, rivers or lakes. Even the 19th century astronomers noted the parts of the ruddy planet changed color.

Causing this color change, said Miss Brewster, was a plant that grows here on this planet, the lichen, called the toughest thing that grows, besides being the most widespread plant on earth. The lichen also has an astounding capability for keeping alive indefinitely, added the speaker, since it shrivels up and waits.

Miss Brewster concluded by saying that the manna in the Bible might very well have been the white lichen which was ground into flour for bread.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. C. V. Gunther and Miss N. Bloom. Mrs. J. H. Saxe presided at the tea table.

Miss Shirley Wolfe, Thomas De Angelis United in Marriage

Miss Shirley M. Wolfe, daughter of Mrs. Anna Wolfe of 23 Mary's avenue, became the bride of Thomas De Angelis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William De Angelis of 73 Ravine street, Saturday, July 10, following a nuptial Mass at St. Mary's Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward J. Farrelly.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin and net, with a fingertip veil of seed pearls and net. She carried a prayer book covered with satin and white rosebuds and baby's breath.

Miss Gladys Wolfe, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a pink ankle length gown of net and satin, styled with a fitted bodice and bolero jacket, and matching shoes and headpiece. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Mrs. Frederick Wolfe, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Elaine Kipp were attendants. Miss Wolfe wore a yellow ankle length gown of net over satin, with matching shoes and headpiece, and carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli. Miss Kipp wore an orchid ankle-length gown of net over satin with matching shoes and headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Miss Linda Fischer, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink full length gown of net over satin with matching shoes and headpiece, and carried a basket of pink and yellow gladioli.

John Wolfe, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Walter Petruski and Frank Fischer, cousin of the bride. Terry Fischer, also a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Leonard Wolfe, brother of the bride, and Robert Brauer, cousin of the bride, served as altar boys.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride's parents for 50 guests, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York.

Schwab to Take Driver Course in Safety Plan

William H. Schwab of Kingston has been chosen to represent the Kingston post office in the U. S. Post Office Department's national motor vehicle accident prevention instructor's program. Postmaster William R. Kraft announced yesterday.

Schwab was selected to go to Syracuse for a five-day instruction course in motor vehicle safety.

Under the nation-wide program, being conducted by the Department's Bureau of Personnel under Assistant Postmaster General Eugene J. Lyons, with the assistance of the American Automobile Association, pioneers in the field of driver education, Schwab will receive driving instructor's training.

The Department expects to help prevent injuries, save human life and reduce its annual costs of $1.5 million dollars from injuries and property damage involving mail-carrying highway vehicles. Through its overall safety program it expects to realize substantial cuts in its total $10 million annual bill for all types of accidents.

Doris Stafford United in Marriage To Ward Schelling

Saugerties, July 13 — Miss Doris M. Stafford, daughter of Mrs. Helen Stafford of 24 Jane street, was united in marriage to Ward N. Schelling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Schelling of Cedar Grove, Sunday, July 11, at 1:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Louis A. Stryker, pastor of St. John's parish in Veteran.

For the occasion the church altar was decorated with white gladioli and the pews were adorned with white satin ribbons and white carnations. Mrs. Roger Preston of Connecticut rendered vocally, Ave Maria, The Lord's Prayer, and Ave Verum to the accompaniment of Miss Jeanette Spring, organist, who also played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Stanley Salisbury, the bride was attired in a gown fashioned with a snugly fitted bodice topped a full skirt of nylon net over taffeta fashioned with thread lace. Satin applique flowers were embroidered on the nylon tulle skirt, and wreathed the oval neckline. The headpiece was a Queen's crown of nylon tulle and seed pearls with fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was a nosegay of white rosebuds trimmed with nylon tulle and showers of ribbons and tiny buds.

Sister of the bride Miss Nancy A. Stafford of Saugerties served as honor attendant. She was attired in a floor length strapless gown of buttercup yellow nylon lace and net over taffeta with a matching lace jacket. Her headpiece consisted of a spray of yellow spring flowers with a tiny veil and she carried a nosegay of aqua carnations showered with yellow ribbons.

The bridesmaids Miss Janice Pfum of Rosendale; Miss Justyn Hallinan of Kingston; and Miss Mary McGowan of Port Ewen, were dressed in attire similar to that of the maid of honor in aqua gowns and headpieces and each carried nosegays of yellow carnations showered with aqua ribbons.

The flower girl, Miss Susan Gough of Queens Village, wore a gown of butterfly yellow nylon net with a headpiece consisting of a spray of yellow spring flowers and she carried a nosegay of aqua and yellow carnations showered with aqua ribbons.

Donald Langley of Schenectady served as best man and the ushers included the brother of the bride, Arthur Stafford who is serving with the U. S. Navy at Bainbridge, Md.; Gary Hammond of Schenectady; and George Oswald of Saugerties. The men in the bridal party wore white jackets and dark trousers.

A reception for 85 guests was held at the Cloverleaf Inn on the Thruway intersection in Saugerties.

For the wedding journey to Niagara Falls and Canada the bride chose for her traveling ensemble a white and blue silk dress with white stole and white accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of Sau-gerties High School and Moravian School of Business, is presently employed with Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation in Saugerties.

(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

Wasteful Not to Exchange Presents

Duplicate shower presents is the problem under discussion in the following letter: "My daughter was given a bridal shower at which she received three kitchen clocks. Would it be proper for her to ask two of the givers to return the clocks, and get something else in their place? My daughter thinks it was up to the girls to offer to exchange them when she opened the presents and they saw that she received three clocks. Since not one of them volunteered to do so, she refuses to ask them. I think she is acting very silly about the whole thing as she cannot possibly use three kitchen clocks."

Since the guests at a shower are supposedly the bride's best friends, she could surely ask two of the ones she knows the best if they would mind if she exchanged the clocks for something else. But it would surely hurt their feelings to do this herself without asking their permission.

Reception At Bride's Future House

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be married soon. He has bought a house which he and his bride intend to move into after their return from their wedding trip. The bride-to-be thought it might be nice to have the wedding reception in their new house. Would this be proper, or should it be held elsewhere?

Answer: The proper place to have it is in their parents' house. But if her parents do not have a house and it means taking a reception room at an hotel, then I think the new house would be very appealing.

Tea for Son's Fiancee

Dear Mrs. Post: What sort of invitation can I write to ask relatives and personal friends, both his and mine, to an informal tea to meet my son's fiancee?

Answer: To relatives and intimate friends, you perhaps write personal notes announcing John's engagement to Mary Blank, and asking them to come to a tea you are giving for her. Otherwise, write "To meet Miss Mary Blank" across your visiting card with day and time below your name.

How should the young men of a small wedding party be dressed? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, leaflet E-8, describes small weddings. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Local Elk Named District Deputy

JOSEPH S. DISCH

Joseph S. Disch of 374 Broadway, past exalted ruler of Kingston Lodge 550, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, has been appointed district deputy of New York East Central District, comprising lodges in this city, Catskill, Liberty, Port Jervis, Newburgh, Middletown, and Haverstraw.

Disch was chosen because of his leadership and service in the Elks, according to the telegram from Grand Exalted Ruler William J. Jernick of Nutley, N. J., recently elected at the 90th grand lodge convention in Los Angeles, Calif.

To Attend Conference
District deputies and other officers are to confer with Grand Exalted Ruler Jernick August 21 at the Elks' National Home, Bedford, Va., to discuss plans and projects for the ensuing year.

Disch, who assumes his duties immediately as direct representative of the grand exalted ruler, is required to visit each lodge in the East Central District and write a report to his superior. As past exalted ruler of Kingston Lodge, Disch is well known in Elks' fraternal circles. He has served as chairman of many important committees in his home lodge and in the district. His latest accomplishment, as mentioned in the July issue of Elks magazine, was as general chairman of the district initiation last March in Kingston Lodge. There were 155 new members accepted at that time. Membership in 1,678 lodges in the country has reached 1,140,000, according to Jernick, 79th leader of the order.

Subways Defeat Perry's, 12-4; Rapp's Express in First Place

Subway Grill strengthened its first place position in the American Softball League yesterday by trouncing Perry's Grill, 12 to 4, behind the superb pitching of veteran Joe Amato.

Rapp's Express took over the lead spot in the National by shading Kaplan Bag, 3-2, while Cherry's was upsetting the erstwhile leaders, Skyline, 9 to 4.

Lincoln Park Inn won its ninth straight victory by tripping the American Legion, 5 to 2, with a late rally.

In other action, Chez Emile was outthit, 13-8, but won over Hercules, 10 to 7. Dave Brandon, the ex-boxer, hurled a five-hit, 8-0, shutout for the Destroyer A.C. against Gene's Bar and Grill.

Alpine collected seven more hits than Cedar Rest (22-15) but suffered a 17-15 loss in the wildest game of the day. The winners scored in six of their seven turns at bat.

7th Win for Amato
Joe Amato allowed only two earned runs as he extended his winning streak to seven straight games against Perry's.

Mike Rienzo and Tom Spada paced a 13-hit Subway attack on Carlo Perry with home runs. Rienzo added two singles, Daisy Schatzel cracked a double and single and Amato added his own cause with two solo swats. Joe Wolf hit a double and J. Musto two singles for Perry's.

A seven-run fourth inning rally salted away Cherry's win over Skyline. Steve Janacek limited Skyline to six hits, while the winners made 11 off Ed Lowe and Don Osterhoudt. Jim Woods had half the Skyline safeties. J. Bruck, F. Leirey and Clyde Carter had two for Skyline. Lierrey rapped a double and triple.

Lincoln Rally
Lincoln Park Inn scored twice in the sixth and seventh to overcome a 2-1 deficit to beat the American Legion. Batting feature was Bud Leininger's home run smash to deep right center for the Lincolns, who made 10 hits off Charlie Bock.

Joe Albany pounded two doubles and Frank Embree a double and single for the Presidents. Bob Graves rapped three singles and Cliff Davis a double and single for the losers.

Jack Kozlowski of Rapp's had a shutout for six innings when Kaplan Bag scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh. He scattered eight hits effectively including two singles by Dick Bezemmer and a double by Jack Sheinwald. Bob Perry led a single and triple for Rapp's.

Armstrong Homers
Johnny Armstrong's homer and three singles in four trips gave solid support to Dave Brandon's 8-0 shutout over Gene's Bar and Grill. James Lindsay stroked a double and three singles and Al Van Derzee hit a double and solo. Nagel had two of the five Gene safeties.

Five Home Runs
Five home runs embellished the 17-15 slugfest Cedar Rest won over Alpine, with Bosco of Cedar Rest cracking a pair in addition to a double and three singles for a "5 for 5" performance.

Dickerson, Don Koeppen, Jordan and Murokoff also hit for the circuit. George Schatzel went "5 for 5" for Alpine, including two doubles. Andy Petruski pounded two doubles and two singles. Baum, Longdenke, Gaddis hit safely three times each.

Art Hansen and F. Schwer pounded homers in Chez Emile's 10-7 win over Hercules, thanks to a five-run rally in the sixth. Joe Enright was tagged for 13 hits but was tough in the clutch. Thornerge stroked three singles for Hercules.

Sir Joseph Wins
Westbury, July 13 (AP)—Sir Joseph, 6-year-old bay gelding owned by Harry Roughedge of Wilkes Barre, Pa., scored a length victory over Bluet Hanover in 2:03.4 last night at Roosevelt Raceway. Chief McKly was third. Sir Joseph, driven by Bob Walker, returned $16.60.

Jones-Dobler Contest In City League Today

Dobler Beer gets a chance to do something about Jones Dairy's stranglehold on first place in the City Baseball League, when the two teams meet today at 6:15 p. m. at the Athletic Field.

The Dairy men have won four straight and can choose from any of three well-rested pitchers—Bruce Bechtold, Joe Benjamin or Red Hinkley.

Doblers (4-2) have a choice between George Magley, a consistent winner in the present campaign, and Gerry Bechtold.

Dewitt Lake Swimming Races Slated Sunday

The "300" Is Feature Of Annual Event

Plans were announced today for the annual DeWitt Lake swimming races on Sunday, July 18, at 3 p. m. at the lake resort on Route 32, south of Kingston.

The feature race, as usual, is the DeWitt Lake "300" which annually attracts the best swimmers in the mid-Hudson area. The name is derived from the length of the race—300 yards.

John Dunn's .466 Leads ALL; Armstrong's 3-0 Tops Hurlers

American Little League batting and pitching statistics for the first half reveal Hobart Armstrong, Sprague Electric's four-letter star as a one-man ball club.

Hobart, who played in the first Little League organized in Kingston four years ago at the tender age of 8, led the pitchers with a 3-0 record.

Armstrong's .433 batting average was only third highest in the circuit, but his all-round worth as a hitter revealed in the slugging statistics which show him leading in home runs (3), tied with Joe DeCicco with one triple; and second in doubles with four.

Dunn Bat's .466
The batting average leader is John Dunn of Spragues with .466, two points higher than Charlie Boice of the Moose Lodge. The other 400 hitters were Ronald Pratt (Sprague) .451, and Ken Sickler (Sprague) .419.

Nassau Youths Tie With 74s In State Golf
Syracuse, July 13 (AP)—Two Nassau county youngsters led a field of 75 today into the final round of the State Junior golf tournament.

Bill Schiefel and Dick McNeil carded 74s yesterday to move ahead in the 36-hole medal play over the 72-par Drumhills Golf Club course.

Schiefel posted identical 37s in and out. McNeil went into 36, came back in 38.

Trailing one stroke behind them were Gene Borek of Yonkers and Ronnie Terpak of Endicott, the New York State Public high school boys titleholder and a semi-finalist in last week's state amateur tourney.

The junior tournament is sponsored by the state Junior Chamber of Commerce. Its four low scorers will qualify for the National Junior golf championship at Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 16-21.

Tied at 76 in the big field were: Arthur Hemker, Jr. of Schenectady, Ken Benson of Brooklyn, Mike Murphy of Batavia, J. P. Konek III of Buffalo, J. Henessey of Buffalo and Glen Young of Troy.

The brown francolin, or partridge, is a common game bird of India and Pakistan. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service has received some of these birds for distribution in Arizona.

Hiltebrants Win 8-6 Over Trailways

National League
Island Dock 1 0
Hiltebrants 1 0
Adirondack Trailways 0 1
Miron Lumber 0 1

Hiltebrants Pirates had two big late innings to edge the Trailways Braves, 8-6, in yesterday's National Little League contest at Kingston Park.

Trailing 3-1 at the end of the third, the Hiltebrants rallied for five runs in the fourth and two more in the sixth.

Although Mike Spada and Charlie Fuscardo permitted only two hits, nine walks and Pirate bobbles kept the Braves in contention.

The two Trailways safeties were doubles by Ray Radel and Terry Corkery, the league's leading hitter.

Hiltebrants collected six hits off Corkery and Hank Schatzel, including two singles by Ralph Fuoco, John Fiore and Fuscardo stroked doubles.

Spada walked five and whiffed seven. Corkery walked three and struck out four, while Fuscardo issued four passes and had three Ks.

New Pension Fund
A new player pension agreement was reached yesterday.

Fuentes Rout Carmine Fiore
Los Angeles, July 13 (AP)—Ramon Fuentes, Los Angeles, 148, scored a one-sided victory over Carmine Fiore, Brooklyn, 147, in their 10-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium last night.

The decision was unanimous. Referee Frankie Van voted 59-53, Judge Tommy Hart 60-49 1/2, Judge Dynamite Jackson 61-49. The Associated Press card had it nine rounds for Fuentes and one round even.

It was a battle of the bulls. Both are stocky boys, but Fuentes had too much skill for the easterner. He scored with booming rights to the body and right hand uppercuts to the body and head.

Lions Club 0 1

The first half champs of the American Little League are off and rolling toward a clean sweep of divisional honors.

Behind Ronnie Secreto's brilliant 1-hit pitching, Sprague Electric routed the Lions Club, 13 to 0, yesterday at the 156th FA diamond.

The lone hit off Secreto, who walked two and fanned nine, was a third inning double by Joe Clark.

Spragues amassed 11 hits and scored in four of their five turns at bat against Frank Fay and Pete Zech. The game was halted because of darkness at the end of five.

Barnes on Rampage
Garry Barnes went "4 for 4" for the Spragues, including a double and three singles. Ken Sickler was close behind with a single, double and triple. Hobart Armstrong socked a three bagger.

Standard Furniture Co.

267-269 FAIR STREET

KINGSTON, N. Y.

Governors . . .

for an interstate road program designed to provide transport for 200 million Americans by 1970.

Reading notes the President had prepared for a speech which Eisenhower canceled after the death of a sister-in-law, Nixon told the governors in the President's words that the "appalling inadequacies" of America's highways must be solved "to meet the demands of catastrophe or defense should atomic war come."

Study Is Suggested

Eisenhower suggested that the governors study a proposal for federal-state cooperation under which Washington might advance funds or guarantee the obligations of localities or states which undertake to construct new or modernize existing highways.

To some governors who had been plugging for abolition of federal gasoline and auto taxes so the states could finance their own road building, this sounded not only like continuation of the Federal Aid Program but an extension of it.

Gov. Dan Thornton, Colorado Republican and chairman of the conference, gave reporters this interpretation of the President's message:

"The President is tossing a challenge to the governors. He says 50 billion dollars is needed for roads in the next 10 years. The states are being offered the opportunity to go ahead under local management.

"The inference is that if the states don't do it, the federal government will."

Dewey Doubts Point

In advance of a conference panel discussion of the issue, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York said in a separate interview that he does not believe the President necessarily implied that the federal government must remain in the road building business.

But he said he regards as "inevitable" such a large-scale construction program as Eisenhower suggested—a more than five-fold expansion of the present federal aid highway program of 900 millions a year.

Nixon made it clear to a reporter that he expected the Eisenhower proposal to arouse controversy among the governors. He told the conference that the 50-billion-dollar goal might seem difficult to attain, but he could think of no more "striking evidence of what a great vista of progress we have in store for our country if we have peace."

Agreeing that the President's suggestion was "dandy" if federal aid was to be continued, Gov. William G. Stratton, Illinois Republican, stuck to his contention that the states should build their own roads.

He and others had criticized at previous conference sessions the action of Congress in continuing the federal aid program despite the governors' recommendations for local control.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Michigan Democrat, said the President's proposal is "discouraging" because "he apparently has given no thought of returning primary control of the highway programs to the states."

Gov. Robert B. Meyner, New Jersey Democrat, said he thinks federal aid must continue because without it there would be no integrated highway system.

Eisenhower's notes, as ready by Nixon, said the present highway system is obsolete and its penalties are manifold.

Amount the latter the President listed an annual death toll approaching 40,000, "comparable to the casualties of a bloody war."

He said there were an annual waste of "billions of hours," in traffic jams and detours, amounting to billions of dollars in productive time. He mentioned countless civil suits, more than half of which originate on the highways, and "the nullification of efficiency in the production of goods by the inefficiency in the transport of goods."

Self-Liquidation Urged

Eisenhower suggested self-liquidating programs "through tolls or the assured increase in bus tax revenues" as well as "federal help where the national interest demands it."

The President dealt only sketchily with other issues in his prepared notes, observing that efforts to build world peace must have economic base at home. He said that in the present period of crises "we must maintain a military dike on our defense perimeter."

"Beyond it," the President said, we must achieve fullest possible productive strength—exploiting every asset, correcting every deficiency in our economic situation."

On what he called the "bright side," the President listed what he foresaw as a swift technical revolution through atomic power.

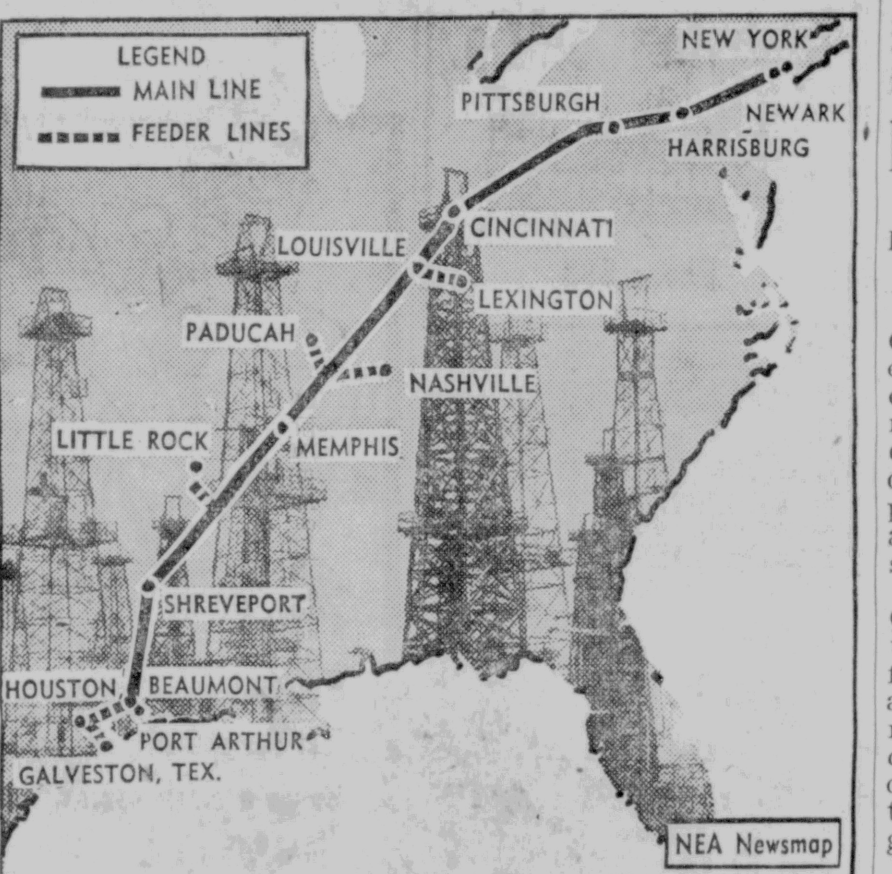

Governors' Confab at Bolton Landing

Gov. Thomas B. Stanley, right, of Virginia, has a close conference with fellow Governors Robert B. Meyner, left, of New Jersey, and William B. Umstead, of North Carolina, during a recess at annual Governors' Conference at Bolton Landing, N. Y., July 12. (AP Wirephoto).

LIFE PRESERVERS—Two Dutch girls inject chemicals into cut flowers in Dusseldorf, Germany, flower shop. Process, a Dutch trade invention, keeps flowers fresh for months.

WORLD'S LONGEST—Map shows course of the world's largest petroleum pipeline, construction of which is expected to start within a month or so, according to the American Pipeline Corp., of New York. The $170,000,000 line will run from the Houston-Beaumont, Tex., area to Newark, N. J. At first it will move 250,000 barrels of petroleum products a day—half of its capacity. Main line will be 1425 miles of 24 and 26-inch pipe, plus 485 miles of smaller pipe in feeder lines.

er and a "revolutionary increase in opportunity, comfort, leisure and productivity of the individual."

On the "dark side," he said, was a shortage of 300,000 classrooms in grade schools, a shortage of 813,000 hospital beds, an annual increase of 250,000 disabled persons, "dislocations of the economy requiring undesirable government intervention" and an absolute transportation system.

On his own after reading the President's notes, Nixon told the governors there is too much current tendency to emphasize the possibility of atomic war. He said more attention should be paid to the A-bomb's deterrent effect.

"It is significant that even some military men say that the atomic weapon, in the long run, may turn out to be one of the greatest forces for peace in the world," he said.

Keeping Wardrobe Clean

Your wardrobe can be protected from dust which seeps into any closet by the very simple method of using plastic shoulder covers or full-length plastic bags and keeping your closet doors shut when you're not making your selection of a costume.

Air Force Cuts

tions subcommittee that "closer figuring" had cut nearly two billions off the total estimated cost of global airfields from the first rough estimate of 9½ billion dollars given Congress a little over two years ago.

Major Gen. L. G. Washbourne, assistant air force chief of staff, testified that the 137-wing air force now projected and former President Truman's onetime goal of 143 wings have approximately the same "overall combat potential."

Douglas said air strength now is 115 wings and he added: "Some of these have highly inadequate base facilities, and these inadequacies must be corrected."

Would End Complaints
United Nations, July 13 (AP)—Guatemala's new military government has asked the UN Security Council to strike Guatemalan complaints against Honduras and Nicaragua from the council calendar. A letter, made public here today, says "peace and order have happily been restored" in that republic.

The letter was signed by Guatemala's new foreign minister, Carlos Salazar, who took office after a successful revolt by anti-Communists against the former government of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman. The leader of the uprising, Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, is head of the new government.

Jeweled or Sheer Nylons
To wash jeweled or very sheer nylons, try this. Shake them in a mason jar half filled with warm soapsuds. Then, rinse the same way. Blot in a towel; hang over a smooth rod, or lay flat on a towel. Be sure to dry away from sun or heat.

Wallpaper Designs
Large wallpaper designs make rooms seem smaller, so these wallpapers are usually reserved for living rooms or bedrooms where there is little furniture.

The Weather

TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1954
Sun rises at 4:18 a. m.; sun sets at 7:21 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather, clear.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 65 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 85 degrees.

Weather Forecast

New York city and vicinity—Some cloudiness and warm this afternoon with high 85 to 90. Mostly fair tonight, low 65 to 70. Fair and hot Wednesday, high 90 to 95. Moderate to occasional fresh southwesterly winds this afternoon shifting to northwesterly tonight. Moderate north to northwest winds Wednesday. Eastern New York—Fair to night with low 60 to 65 in the north and 65 to 70 in south portion. Wednesday rather cloudy and warm with scattered showers in north portion by night.

City engineer's weather report: Temperature at 10 a. m. today 82, barometric pressure 29.52, humidity 63, wind SW at 5 MPH and a trace of rain. High temperature yesterday 91 at 3 p. m., and low 60 at 4 a. m. Mean 75 and normal 77. Humidity 80 at 5 a. m., and 21 at 3 p. m. Barometric pressure 29.87 at 7 a. m., and 29.75 at 9 p. m. Wind SW at 14 MPH.

Check Water Pressure

If you are planning to buy an automatic washer, make sure it will operate well on the water pressure available. Several types of washers must have a pressure of at least 20 pounds to operate properly; others will operate though the pressure is as low as 10 pounds.

Ice Cream Storage

To store ice cream for a short period of time in the ice-cube compartment of your refrigerator, transfer it to a dry refrigerator tray and cover the top with waxed paper.

TRADE AND AID—Economic recovery of many nations depends upon their ability to sell their products to the U. S., the world's greatest buyer. Their success in exporting brings nearer the time when U. S. foreign aid can be ended. Newschart above shows the course of U. S. imports, exports and foreign aid from 1944 to the present. During 1952 and '53, we bought more than we sold abroad, with imports reaching an all-time high of $16.6 billion in 1953. Gradual European recovery brought foreign aid requirements down from their 1944 wartime peak of $14.1 billion to $6.6 billion in 1953.

THE BIG PILE-UP—Above Newschart shows increases in staple commodities (under rigid price supports) from 1952 to the end of 1954 marketing year. During the period, the wheat surplus increased 620 million bushels, and butter surplus increased over 302 million pounds. Data from U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Regional Forecast

Western New York, northern Finger Lakes to Lake Ontario, Black river basin—Fair, warm today, tonight and tomorrow followed by cloudiness late tomorrow.

Northern New York and western Mohawk area—Mostly cloudy, warm today, scattered showers this morning. Fair and cooler tonight. Wednesday, sunny, moderate temperature. Outlook for Thursday, cloudy, warmer, showers likely.

South-central New York—Partly cloudy, warm today, few scattered light showers this morning. Fair, cooler tonight. Wednesday, sunny, moderate temperature. Outlook for Thursday, cloudy, warmer, showers likely.

Southeastern New York—Partly cloudy, warm, windy today; few scattered light showers. Fair, cooler tonight, low 60-65. Wednesday, sunny, moderate temperature, high 80-85. Outlook for Thursday, cloudy, warmer, showers likely. Winds south 15-30 this morning shifting to northwest late today and diminishing tonight, light and variable Wednesday.

Unpleasant Meetings

Titusville, Fla. (AP)—If Thomas Peta and Howard Shafer never see each other again, it will be all right with both of them. Recently, their cars collided on a street here. The damage wasn't extensive but two weeks later they collided head-on on a highway near Orlando. This time, both cars were wrecked and Peta was hospitalized with a pelvic fracture.

Typewriter Maintenance

Typewriters should be given a certain amount of attention to insure continued service. Oiling the machine occasionally is important. And the type should be brushed daily.

Makers of photographic materials estimate that Americans are taking pictures with their cameras at the rate of more than five million a day.

Builder Refuses to Testify

Sidney Sarner, left, identified as the builder of a Linwood Park, Inc., N. J., apartment project, and his attorney George Marcus of Hackensack, N. J., talk after appearance before Senate Banking Committee probe in Washington July 12 of the F.H.A. Sarner, of Tenafly, N. J., refused to testify. Marcus criticized the committee and accused its members of "shooting off" their mouths. He shouted at Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.), chairman, "We did nothing wrong." (AP Wirephoto).

Atom Engine ...

conditions make it necessary that:

"Our provisions for the control of (atomic) information must now be revised to protect our national interest in a world where the forces of evil have added to their conventional arms a growing ability to launch a devastating atomic blow against the free world..."

For Better or Worse

"We of this generation have been visited with a new form of energy which can ravage this planet beyond recognition, or make it fair beyond the wildest dreams of our fathers. It is the hope it is the prayer of those of us who now commend this legislation to the Congress that the atom will be not the destroyer but the servant of humanity."

The bill would:

1. Authorize the negotiation of agreements with foreign nations in the area of peacetime uses of atomic energy. The committee said this would provide "a mechanism to implement the President's peacetime international atomic pool plan."
2. Permit the AEC to transfer to another nation participating in such an agreement atomic materials in quantities needed for the development or utilization of atomic energy for non-military and research purposes.

Allows Transfer

3. Allow transfer to another nation, or to a regional defense organization, secret data concerning the tactical employment of atomic weapons—but not including any information on their design and fabrication.

4. Permit the AEC to license private industry to possess and utilize atomic materials and to own atomic reactors or "furnaces" designed to produce and utilize such materials.

The dissenters to certain sections were Reps. Cole and Van Zandt (R-Pa.), who opposed the section of the bill regarding patents; Reps. Holifield (D-

Mayors Swap Jobs
Detroit (AP)—Nearly 400 Michigan communities swapped mayors for a day as part of Michigan Week observance. One swap sent Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit (pop. 1,838,517) to Britton (pop. 409) while Britton's Mayor Robert Wallace took over in Detroit.

Casualties Estimated
St. Paul, Minn. (AP)—Nearly a million casualties could be expected in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area in event of a "saturation" A- or H-bomb attack, according to Col. E. B. Miller, Minnesota civil defense director. An estimated 300,000 would be killed, Miller says.

Operation Family
Jacksonville, Ill. (AP)—Appendectomies are getting to be a habit in the Clarence Rawlings family. Two sons, Charles, 16, and Franklin, 7, had their appendices out a week apart. Their sister, Mary Kay, had hers out last February.
